

Future Sonics exhibiting their Ear Monitors brand and more at the 2012 Winter NAMM Show

Summary: Future Sonics is excited to announce they are exhibiting at the upcoming NAMM Show 2012. In addition they are sponsoring the SchoolJam USA Battle of the Bands, continuing their support of H.E.A.R and offering demonstrations of both Ear Monitors® models.

Bristol, PA, Anaheim, CA – January 19-22, 2011 - Future Sonics, the leader in custom dynamic personal monitors and innovator of the Award winning Ear Monitors® brand, is excited to announce they will be Exhibiting at the upcoming NAMM Show 2012 set to take place January 19-22 in Anaheim, CA. As part of their exhibition they will have both their mg6proi 13mm and mg5proi 10mm Ear Monitors® custom models available at their booth #6626 for demo by attendees. This will be the first time listeners can hear the Future Sonics studio reference audio signature, provided by their proprietary dynamic transducer technology, while having the ability to A/B them with their personal sets on hand or with Balanced Armature style products exhibited on the show floor. There will also be an Audiologist on site taking ear impressions with custom product orders.

This is an exciting time for Future Sonics with the release of our mg5proi and mg6proi Ear Monitors® models. My team and I are thrilled to be able to kick start 2012 by participating in the NAMM Show. This event will set the stage for a game changing year ahead,+Marty Garcia, Founder and CEO.

In addition to exhibiting, Future Sonics is proud to announce their sponsorship of the 3rd Annual SchoolJam USA National Teen Battle of the Bands produced by NAMM. SchoolJam USA highlights the best and most talented teen musicians from around the country while at the same time supporting local school music programs. Future Sonics Award-winning Atrio® Universal Professional Earphones will be part of the prizes for each finalist in each category. The SchoolJam Finals will take place Saturday January 21 at 5:00 p.m. in the Downtown Disney District.

Future Sonics is also proud to be a 25 year supporter of Kathy Peck and H.E.A.R. (Hearing Education and Awareness for Rockers), a non-profit organization dedicated to hearing conservation and education. Be sure to stop by Lobby Hall D Booth #2005 to make a donation, get some Macke Earplugs, and learn more about hearing health for musicians.
